

Level	AMANA's Title	Position	Typical Experience	Technical Competency	Role Focus	Type of Task	Breakdown	Institutional Responsibility	Autonomy within work	Performance & Promotion Criteria
1	Junior Officer		Entry-level (0-2 Years) Support roles where the primary experience, involves following established checklists and learning organizational standards. No prior experience may be required, basic education.	- Accurate data entry - Understanding of fundamental workflows.	Execution & Support : Focuses on learning internal processes and providing administrative assistance	Task-based execution, providing operational support to senior personnel under direct supervision.	- Executing core daily processes under close supervision - Managing simple databases and archives - Assisting with formal correspondence. - Support senior staff and create MoM Meeting - Monitor office supplies and basic inventory	- Operational Execution - Divisional & PG Support		Junior --> Officer Demonstration of full autonomy in executing foundational tasks within the Practice Group Officer --> Senior Officer Developing new initiatives, methodologies, or process enhancements. Senior officer -->Lead Ability to effectively distribute tasks and manage productivity across multiple Practice Groups. Lead --> head Successfully mentoring staff and driving formal personal/career development for subordinates. Proficiency in budget formulation, expenditure monitoring, and financial risk management
2	Officer	Finance Officer Operation Officer	Early Career (2-4 years): Mastered the basics and now can work independently with small supervision	- Basic data analysis (Excel) - Standardized quality checking - Ability to draft work materials.	Operational Coordination: Focuses on specific functional areas with increased autonomy.		- Executing core processes independently - Preparing drafts of monthly reports - Managing small tasks/projects. - Coordinate with vendors for routine service	- Execution & Process Ownership - Support Division & PG	Task Execution
3	Senior Officer		Mid Career (4-6 years) : Intermediate experience requiring "Critical Evaluation" skills, not just doing the work, but evaluating the quality and efficiency of the work.	- Medium-scale project management skills - proactive internal stakeholder management.	Process Management Focuses on optimizing workflows and supervising small-scale projects not people development.	Assisting with various project under direct supervision, while transitioning toward more complex technical responsibilities.	- Managing process improvement or initiatives. - Developing and implementing new SOPs/Guidelines - Mentoring Junior Officers. - Review and validate operational data for accuracy - Identify bottlenecks procedures and suggest improvements - Liasise with cross functional PG and other unit to ensure operational alignment	- Functional Guidance - Quality Control - Process Optimization
4	Lead / Coordinator		Managerial Level (6-10 years): Focus shifts from "doing" to "supervising. need significant experience in project management, people coordination and cross-functional coordination.	- Comprehensive understanding of the division's business cycle - Basic team performance management. - Budget tracking, and reporting.	Supervision & Strategy Implementation: Focuses on leading a small team and implementing broader operational plans, ensuring things get done	Functional oversight of junior officers, Innovation and development	- Overseeing and leading the daily performance of a small team/section - Designing and implementing significant process changes - Creating operational plans. - Manage complex processes	- Managing all subordinate staff - Monitoring performance - Cross functional coordination - Risk Mitigation	Project and People Management
5	Head	Head of Operation	Strategic Level >10 years : Executive level experience focusing on Business Acumen, cost benefit analysis to drive the organization's sustainability	- Annual strategic planning and budgeting capability - Strong external stakeholder management - Functional risk management.	Divisional Strategic Leadership: Responsible for the overall strategic direction, risk management, and growth of the function or division, high level decision making	Talent development, strategic leadership, Fiscal management	- Overseeing the performance, Budget, and strategy of the entire Group/Section. - Developing and maintaining the division's short-to-medium-term strategic plans. - Manage high level stakeholder and vendor relationships	- Mentoring and managing all subordinate staff - Budgeting and expenditure monitoring: - Man Power Planning	Strategic Leadership	